KEYNOTE – Catherine McTamaney

Catherine McTamaney, Ed.D., is the award-winning author of The Tao of Montessori and A Delicate Task: Teaching and Learning on a Montessori Path.

Dr. McTamaney has been a Montessori teacher, educator, and head of school. She currently serves as the Director of Undergraduate Education for Peabody College's Department of Teaching and Learning at Vanderbilt University and is a Research Associate at the Social Computing Group in the MIT Media Lab.

The Tao of Montessori offers a quiet balance to the noisy demands of teaching and parenting through a special blend of encouraging verse. Award-winning Montessori teacher Catherine McTamaney revisits the eighty-one verses of Lao-tzu's Tao Te Ching and relates them to the life and work of teachers, parents, and children.

We are each other's navigational stars. Montessori's words, across generations, guide us.

We are working in common toward a perfection we may never individually see. But we're on the path. And we're not alone.

A Delicate Task: Teaching and Learning on a Montessori Path

Special Guest Speaker Darlene Maxwell

Dr. Maxwell is Professor Emeritus of Education at Coker College in So Carolina. She earned her Ed.D. in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Arizona in 1996, her M.Ed. in Early Childhood Education from Boston University in 1989 and her B.S. in Elementary Education from Presbyterian College in 1973. She is also Montessori certified for Primary and Elementary Classroom Director and a Montessori teacher educator.

At the college level, Darlene has taught graduate and undergraduate courses in early childhood curriculum, child development, educational psychology, elementary science and math methods, research methods and Montessori educational foundations. Traveling across the country, she has also served as a teacher educator for a hands-on science curriculum from the University of Hawaii and as a teacher in Montessori education.

Passionate about the need for play in children's lives, she has presented on this topic at state, national and international conferences.

Dr, Maxwell is a frequent contributor to professional journals and publications and has authored numerous books on the changing educational environment of public education and the importance of play.

She and her husband reside in Camden, SC where she enjoys reading, gourmet cooking, visiting her grandchildren and traveling.

She is a wellness advocate for essential oils and a fitness enthusiast. She is passionate about sharing personal and family health through Montessori philosophy, mindful movement, and essential oils.

6-C Raising Montessori Children in a Microwave Society*Level: All/PP

When Dr. Montessori perfected her philosophy, she had no idea what an "instant gratification" society we would become. We will discuss the art of patience in a world where waiting is becoming increasingly obsolete.

Meghan Redman Please see Meghan's bio under Session 4-F.

6-D Using World Instrument, Movement & Sound to enrich Educational Offerings*Level: EL/MS/ADM/PP

Daniel will instruct how to use instruments and sound to increase engagement, and augment lessons in various subjects. Teachers will learn instrument making ideas, simple gathering rhythms of the world, and ways to reinforce traditional core curriculum components with music, rhythm, movement and sound.

Daniel Scruggs has studied, performed and taught music for over 25 years. He teaches at Sundrops Montessori's four campuses in and around Charleston, SC. His curiosity and love of learning have led him to study many cultural traditions throughout the world. He is the founder of the Rhythm Moves cultural education program.

6-E Why Can't they Focus? Supporting Sensory Needs of Children*Level: All/PP

This workshop explains the importance of sensory regulation in young children. You will learn how sensory needs often lead to children who can't focus, keep their hands to themselves, or regulate their emotions. You will also learn how daily observations can serve as indicators of underlying sensory needs. Many activities will be introduced to support these children to help them focus and regulate their emotions. These can be incorporated into work time, group time and outside play.

Holli Andrews has been teaching in Montessori since 2000. After helping start a Montessori school she then became Learning specialist at another Montessori school in Charlotte, NC. She has her Master's of EC from San Francisco State University and is dedicated to helping children overcome their sensory needs and reach their individual potential.

6-F Opening your Montessori School*Level: ALL

Participants will be guided through the steps of successfully starting a Montessori school and creating a business plan. Topics addressed will include: personal requirements, market analysis, forecast assumptions, school promotion, cash flow projections, site location and regulatory frameworks.

Elizabeth Hobbs is an experienced Montessori educator and financial professional. She operated, for 10 years, a Montessori school she founded and also was Head of the American International Montessori School in Hanoi, Viet Nam. She has her EC and EI certifications and currently teaches at the Montessori elementary level in Maryland.

6-G The Science behind Perseverance*Level: All

Nowadays, to go beyond, the word "effort", to do it again, repeat and try again, are not always as easy to the ear for either the child or the parent, and not easy to accomplish. Why is it that some children will keep trying and persevere as long as necessary while others struggle? Is it because of family education? Society? Heredity? What can we propose to children and teachers to help facilitate this state of mind and this way of life?

Pascale Quirion has been a teacher for 25 years and teacher training for 9. Her passion is Montessori and loves the challenge of offering children and parents the best "keys to success". Allan Nguyen has been teaching for 10 years in Elementary. He is motivated to share his vision and belief on what he feels is the best pedagogy.

6-H The 3R's for Teachers & Staff: Rest, Renewal and Reflection*Level: All

This workshop is designed to help teachers recognize the value and need for cultivating rest, renewal and reflection in their personal lives so that they can bring the best of themselves to their work on a daily basis. Within the framework of the Circle, participants will be guided through a series of queries and exercises to identify their own inner core and most deeply held values, which inform and guide their work so they can bring the best of themselves and truly cultivate peace within.

Claire Salkowski is an educator, professional mediator and Circle facilitator with almost 40 years experience in education. She has taught at every level from toddlers through graduate students. She was Director of Montessori Education and Associate Professor at Delaware State University and has been involved in several Montessori teacher-training centers. She founded Free State Montessori School in Maryland and continues as their educational director. Her curriculum development includes subjects on peace education, conflict resolution, and peer mediation.

Laughter Yoga with Kristie

Level: All

Easy and fun exercises for health and happiness! Reduce stress instantly! Strengthen your immune system! Laughter helps to keep you in a good mood and cheerful disposition throughout your day. Laughter Yoga oxygenates your brain and makes you feel more energetic which helps you keep a positive mental attitude in difficult times.

If you can experience this, then it will be easy to take this back to your classroom to help your students through their difficult transitions in life. It's a great way to start your day in the classroom and gets everyone, adults and students, on the happy road to cheerful productivity!

Kristie Norwood has been involved in Montessori environments since 2003. She currently works at the Institute for Guided Studies as Director of Student Affairs and is an MEPI conference committee member. She has been a certified Laughter Yoga instructor since 2012 and is co-leader of the Columbia, South Carolina Laughter Yoga Club. She fully believes that laughing is the easiest, fastest, and the most inexpensive way to live a happy life.

Run and Ride

Level: All

What better way to end a fabulous and full weekend than to unwind with a healthy run on the beach! If running is not your cup of tea we will have bikes to rent to accompany the runners on the hard-pack sand, which is perfect for beach biking. All levels of fitness are welcome. Walkers too!! Getting outside is what is important and an opportunity to spend some down time at the rejuvenating atmosphere of the ocean before heading back to our homes and schools.

Martha Teien owns and directs a small primary school in the mountains of Colorado where she enjoys the crisp mountain air on her daily jogs. She is the current President of MEPI and has the ability to enthusiastically get the Board of Directors up and out of our meeting chairs and into the outdoors to regroup, renew, and refresh!

History of MEPI

Montessori Educational Programs International (MEPI) was founded in 1995 by a group of 8 representatives of teacher education programs interested in promoting peace through authentic Montessori education and practice.

Dr. Helen K. Billings, an inspiring leader in Montessori education, was instrumental in guiding this organization's formation. Through her global network, she encouraged these 8 MEPI founders, along with countless others, to adopt the Montessori philosophy into their lives and especially in their work as educators.

To this purpose, MEPI offers education programs across the US, and in 7 foreign countries. In addition, MEPI insures cooperation with MACTE by having a seat on their board, and working in conjunction with MACTE through periodic reassessment and revision of policies, procedures, standards, and criteria.
